

Free film screening & conversations

From New Orleans to Virginia, Mississippi and Canada, The Long Shadow follows two white Southern filmmakers as they travel the roads of oppression and suppression to reveal the connections of slavery and strong-arm Southern politics to the current racial strife in America. The film is a disturbing story about the lingering human cost of ignorance, intolerance and inaction in the United States, casting a long shadow over our national identity & imperfect democracy. 87 minutes

Elmhurst College- Irion Hall (Buik Recital Bldg)

Monday, June 10 doors open 6:30pm - screening@ 7pm

following the movie there will be time to share open/non-judgmental conversations that hope to build understanding & racial healings.

Sponsored by local area faith communities & institutions

Special thanks to the Office of the Elmhurst College Chaplain
